

Internship at the International Union of Property Owners

Brussels, Belgium

The International Union of Property Owners (UIPI) is looking for an intern, starting in September 2017.

Deadline for application: 14 July 2017

About UIPI

The UIPI is a leading representative body for home owners and private landlords in Europe. With 30 member organisations, the UIPI represents more than 5 million property owners in 28 countries across Europe. Based in Brussels, the UIPI's main task is to ensure that property owners' interests are represented and defended vis-à-vis European institutions. The UIPI is active in those areas of EU legislation and policy that have an impact on real estate, the building sector, the private-rented sector and property rights.

Profile

- A student of law, economics, communication, engineering or European studies;
- Possibility to sign a tripartite traineeship agreement required (university - intern - UIPI)
- EU national or have a valid Belgian work permit;
- Proficient in written and spoken English. Any additional EU languages is an asset;
- Good understanding of the EU decision-making process;
- Good written and verbal communication skills;
- Fast learner, eager to gain experience in public affairs and project management.

Responsibilities:

The intern will have the opportunity to:

- Contribute to public affairs activities and monitoring EU policy developments;
- Assist with research, projects and communication activities;
- Attend meetings and conferences;
- Provide organisational support.

We offer:

- A stimulating first work experience within an EU affairs office;
- The possibility to work in a multicultural environment;
- Get an insight into matters of interest if the real estate sector;
- A small financial compensation.

If you are interested, please send your cover letter and CV to: Ms Emmanuelle Causse, Director of European Affairs, office@uipi.com.

